U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS

BUILDING STRONG

CAP-205-St. Mary's River and Fairfield Ditch, Fort Wayne, IN

Description

The St. Mary's River and Fairfield Ditch project is located in Allen County, Fort Wayne, IN. A 100-year flood event in July 2003, followed by a 25-year flood in January 2005, greatly affected those living in the vicinity of the St. Mary's River and the Fairfield Ditch. The USACE was requested to investigate potential solutions to this situation under the Section 205 study authority to ultimately alleviate the flooding concerns in these areas.

Feasibility

Status

Upon execution of a Feasibility Cost Share Agreement (FCSA) with the City of Fort Wayne, IN in September 2008, detailed feasibility studies commenced in 2009. Data gathering, alternative evaluation, conceptual design activities and other feasibility-related tasks were subsequently performed. In July 2015, the City of Fort Wayne requested that the study be suspended through 2016 while they determine their ability to continue cost-sharing the project. As such, the study is currently inactive.
